

Cinema Insurance from WRS

Bespoke insurance for Cinema For All members

At WRS Insurance Brokers we've helped lots of independent cinemas, both large & small with their insurance requirements. Whether you're a well-established community cinema, or just setting out on your journey to bring great films to your local area, we can guide you through the type of insurance you need.

We've been working in collaboration with Cinema For All for more than 10 years and have a full understanding of the insurance needs and requirements of community cinemas and their members. We believe in celebrating the great community benefits that film societies and groups are bringing to villages, towns & cities in the UK.
